October Session: "CA Update"

Speaker: Renee Rodda, J.D.

by Robert L Seymour, EA

One of the most respected California tax law specialists, Ms. Rodda works closely with all state tax agencies and has the most up-to-date information on what is happening at the state level. She will speak to us about recent changes to California law, including discussion of legislation enacted, the use tax lookup table and proper calculation and payment of use tax, California's conformity and non-conformity with Federal tax law, and a variety of other topics.

There will be plenty of time available for questions from attendees, in this 2 hour session.

This is an excellent opportunity to learn in depth about changes in the California tax law and the important differences between California and Federal tax law!

With 2 hours of CE on California Tax Law Topics, the target audience is: Enrolled Agents, attorneys, CPAs and unenrolled preparers.

Renee Rodda, J.D., is Editorial Director at Spidell Publishing, Inc.® and editor of Spidell's California Taxletter® and Spidell's Analysis & Explanation of California Taxes®. She authors the California chapters of Spidell's Federal and California Tax Update seminar manual and is a regular speaker at Spidell's fall update seminars, summer seminars, and webinars. She has authored "A Practical Guide to Trusts" and "Taxation of Registered Domestic Partners," and other publications.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

by Patty Pringle, EA, President, EBAEA

Ahh ... Fall is in the air. The September 15th filing deadline is behind us and now we're in the home stretch for the October 15th deadline. Hang in there! Keep in mind there is always help and support available from your fellow EA's.

Have you had a chance to watch the NAEA video on EA's that will be shown on 5,800 American Airlines worldwide flights over the full months of October and November? NAEA President, Lonnie Gary, EA, USTCP (member and Past President of our East Bay Chapter) recorded a very professional two-minute interview explaining what an Enrolled Agent is, and refers to them as America's Tax Experts. NAEA also purchased a corporate sponsorship on NPR (National Public Radio) and the video will air during January and February, 2015. The video is available to view using the following link <http://vimeo.com/clearwind/review/102258112/9cedef1446>

In September, I attended the IMRS (Issue Management Resolution System) teleconference call. This is a function of IRS's Communications and Stakeholder Outreach and was established to facilitate stakeholder issue identification, resolution and feedback. The purpose of the call is to have open discussion with practitioners to help identify systemic issues that can be elevated to IMRS for resolution. All practitioners are invited to attend. Calls are generally held the fourth Thursday of each month from 8:30 AM to 9:00 AM. For additional information, and/or to register for an IMRS Conference Call, please contact either Stakeholder Liaison (IMRS working group member) Jennifer Henrie-Brown, 510-637-2199, Jennifer.Henrie-Brown@irs.gov or Keith Kershner, 559-513-5298, Keith.D.Kershner@irs.gov. The 30 minute call was definitely worth my time. Highlights from the call were: Hot issues report and recent IRS news items of interest to tax professionals. For example, there is now an ACA Information Center for Tax Professionals on IRS.gov.

Please check out the flyer at the back of this Bulletin for information (or to register!) for the East Bay Chapter 2014 Tax Talk Seminar. With so many educational offerings these days it can be difficult to choose where your educational dollar will go. Attending a live seminar is more personal. You can ask the presenters questions, and talk with them personally. You get to meet and network with your fellow tax professionals. These relationships prove invaluable when you need help with a tax question. For additional information please email epatyringle@sbcglobal.net.

Thank you to those that volunteered and those that attended the 20th Annual Tax Practitioner IRS Fall Seminar in September. It was a great and rare opportunity to ask the IRS speakers questions and get answers. A special thank you to Peggy Hall, EA, for doing such a wonderful job as MC!

We need volunteers for the Tax Talk Seminar. Please email Patty Pringle, EA at epattypringle@sbcglobal.net. If you can help even in the smallest way it will be greatly appreciated.

LEGISLATIVE NEWS

by Peggy Hall, EA, Legislative Chair

I just participated in an online CSEA Legislative Committee meeting. It is very inspiring to hear how hard the members of CSEA are working to maintain and improve our visibility with California legislators.

CSEA members were involved in the recent State Tax Agency Liaison Meeting in Sacramento. Our credibility is strong with FTB, because of our involvement. I will bring you more information on this next month.

After October 15th and recovery time, I will be setting up visits with our local legislators, and asking you to present them with a packet of information about EAs. Make note of legislators you might want to visit.

It is a good marketing strategy to let the local Politicians know of your involvement in the community, and that you are available to help their constituents (or their own offices) with tax questions and problems, as well as tax policy issues.

We are currently working on position papers for CSEA. If you have opinions about what we should support or work to change with the State agencies, please contact me at peggy@halloftaxes.com or 925-388-1040!

CHECK YOUR CE CREDITS!

by Marjorie Williams-Jones, EA, Education Coordinator

At every meeting, those of us at the front desk pester you for your PTIN. We're not just testing your memory, but making sure we have the correct number to report your CE credits to CSEA, who then upload them to the IRS.

You can (and should be) checking the CE credits that have been reported for you at the website <https://rpr.irs.gov/datamart/mainMenuUSIRS.do>

You can also find this site through IRS.gov / For Tax Pros / Register or Renew your PTIN.

This is the same place that you've likely been renewing your PTIN the last few years.

If you can't locate your login information, there's a "forgot password / forgot User ID" wizard to help. Do NOT "Create a New PTIN Account". That will create a new PTIN, which you don't want to do.

After logging in, a window will open that allows you to re-new your PTIN (if needed), read your Messages from the IRS; at the very bottom of the window is "View My Continuing Education Credits."

Selecting that will open a screen which displays the total credits reported for you for 2014. You can toggle it between 2013 and 2014, and also expand the information to see the detail of the credits reported for you.

It is because people checked regularly (and reported back to me) that we realized that the credits for our March 2014 meeting didn't successfully upload to IRS. We've notified CSEA and they are re-uploading those credits.

After you check your credits, please let me know if you find anything amiss for EBAEA meetings you've attended. Contact me at marj@marjtax.com.

WHICH TAX SOFTWARE TO USE?

As we approach a new year, this is the time to review your software needs. Ron Hansen, EA, will be holding a meeting at his house to discuss the various programs and their features and user satisfaction. Please send Ron an email at taxhotline@comcast.net or give him a call at 925-736-4842 if you are interested.

Also if you use CCH Access software Ron would like to talk with you. Please call or email Ron.

Are you interested in a practice with 225 clients, in Oakland, generating $100,000 gross revenue? Contact Walter Nygaard, EA, at 510-333-1129

EBAEA MEMBER SPECIALTIES

by Peggy Hall, EA

Do you have an area of tax law in which you feel competent to help other EA's? We are putting together a list to post in the members area of our website, giving our members a resource when they need advice about a specialty area of a tax return, i.e. estates, trust, S Corps, foreign earned income etc. You can set your own fees.

To volunteer to be on the list, contact Sal Romo, at sromojr@taxandpayroll.com or 510-487-1691 or Peggy Hall at peggy@halloftaxes.com or 925-388-1040 with questions, or to ask them to put you on the list.

This can be of tremendous value to our members, particularly relatively new EAs. So, please be generous with your participation.

"LETTERS TO THE EDITOR" INVITATION

by Robert L Seymour, EA

If you attended the September dinner meeting, you heard Patty Pringle, EA, announce that our Bulletin will test a "Letters to the Editor" feature.

If you have thoughts that you want to share, please send them to EBAEA.Editor@gmail.com. I will treat your ideas respectfully, but will not promise to publish everything that I receive.

What is appropriate Bulletin content? Did you read an interesting article, that would benefit other EAs? Is there an issue in a court case that we should be aware of? Have you found an interesting way to get through to someone at the IRS? Is there a blog or web site with really great info? Are you really annoyed that we include a humor section? Do you feel that there is nothing funny about taxation? Would you stop reading the Bulletin at all, if it did not have a humor section? Does the Editor write too many articles that you find irrelevant?

I do not suggest the kind of questions that we put in the discussion boards, which call for prompt response from multiple participants.

Please allow your name to be published.

NEW MEMBER WELCOME – MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE REPORT

by Aida Q. Torres, EA, Membership Chair

We are now in the last quarter of 2014, but the 2nd quarter of our fiscal year ending June 30, 2015. Our Chapter goal is to build the membership gradually throughout the year, as we work to bring new EA members to our organization, through several initiatives.

The CSEA “Just Ask One – Recruitment Campaign” resources are being put into action. With your help, as tax professionals see the value of participating, our membership will grow!

During the last fiscal year, we welcomed twenty-two (22) new members (EA, Professional Affiliates, Professional Associates & Student). We’d like to do better this year!

We ask each of our members, who are also mentors to new EAs, to welcome new EA Members and help them get familiar with – and actively participate in -- our chapter!

Welcome to two new EA members, who joined us in August, 2014: Gina Fresquez, EA, joined August 8, and Joseph Yick, EA joined August 15.

An Orientation Event for October 22nd had been planned, but because October is such a busy month, we have decided to hold this event in January, 2015. We will have the “Appreciation Night Event” with our November 19th meeting!

To get more information on coming events, please login to: www.ebaea.org.

If you have recently joined, and your name is not listed, contact Aida, at aidatorres04@sbcglobal.net or aidatorres@realtor.com. All new members and professional associates and professional affiliates will receive a packet from CSEA. All new EA members will receive a packet and certificate from EBAEA. If you are a new EA member and haven’t received a packet from the Membership Committee, please let us know.

EAs AVAILABLE TO SPEAK

Although our speaker’s development group has been dormant this year, there are still a number of chapter members who welcome the opportunity to speak on a variety of tax topics. If you know of a group that would like a guest speaker, please contact Andy Rogers, EA, or Mark Bole, EA for suggestions.

BULLETIN ADVERTISING POLICY

by Robert L Seymour, Bulletin Editor

To encourage more Members to use the Bulletin to fill their needs, we present the Bulletin advertising policy:

- 1) All Bulletin notices are run for a maximum of three months. If you wish to run a notice for a longer period, you must resubmit the notice.
- 2) Maximum notice size is 1.5 column inches. This equals a space one and one-half inches high by one column (3.5 inches) wide. The standard Bulletin font is Times New Roman 11 point.
- 3) The Bulletin Editor reserves the right to edit any notice for style, content and length.
- 4) All notices must be submitted (and payment received) by the 25th of the month prior to initial publication. Send desired text to: EBAEA.Editor@gmail.com.
- 5) Member notices seeking or offering employment, clients or EA-practice-related matters are run at no charge as a Member benefit. This includes an ad run by a firm which employs a Member. Member notices offering other services or products, and all non-Member notices are run at the standard fee of $150 for the three-month insertion.

The Bulletin Editor reserves the right to modify or reject any notice which, in the sole opinion of the Editor, violates any of the principles of EBAEA.

SPEAKERS GROUP WORKSHOPS

The EBAEA Speakers Group will hold another workshop for you to hear and provide constructive criticism on:

Saturday November 8th, 1 pm - 3 pm for "Schedule C for Enrolled Agents" intended to be a two hour seminar for Enrolled Agents and will cover selection for audit, DIF scores and intuition about returns, what to say to the client who reports their barber's tax advice, new simplified home office and what questions to ask before submitting a Schedule C.

The event will be conducted free of charge, at 3333 Fernside Blvd. in Alameda (off of High Street bridge) by Andy Rogers Andy@TaxBuddha.com. Beverages provided, and possibly some cheese and crackers. No CPE provided (but if you really, really want it, let him know!)

HUMOR

A tax preparer, unsure whether a client’s wife was entitled to an additional exemption for being 65 years old, sent the husband an e-mail requesting the information. The next day he got a reply: “My wife says she is not 65 years old, nor will she ever be!”

How do EA’s deal with their spouses’ insomnia? They tell them about their work.

MORE HUMOR

A tax attorney defended a case of tax evasion for an affluent client. He devoted over a year to the case, familiarizing himself with every loophole and angle of the law, and made a brilliant argument before the court. His client was called out of town just before the jury reached its verdict, a sweeping victory for his client on every count. Flushed with victory, the lawyer exuberantly sent an email to his client, reading "Justice has prevailed!" The client responded immediately, "Appeal at once!"

NASA astronomers, using the Hubble space telescope, have discovered a giant black hole in the United States with a tremendous sucking force that makes matter disappear. They have termed it the IRS.

A guy in a bar leans over to the guy next to him and asks, "Want to hear an accountant joke?" The guy next to him replies, "Well, before you tell that joke, you should know that I'm six feet tall, 200 pounds, and I'm an accountant. And the guy sitting next to me is six feet two inches tall, 225 pounds, and also an accountant. Now, do you still want to tell that joke?" The first guy says, "No! I don't want to have to explain it two times."

CALIFORNIA "SINGLE SALES FACTOR" AND APPORTIONMENT

by Robert L Seymour, EA

For business income partially in California, the FTB web site has updated information on the "Single Sales Factor and Assignment of Sales" reflecting passage of Proposition 39, applying to years beginning on January 1, 2013 or later. As noted on the site, "The new laws affect all taxpayers carrying on or doing business in and out of California or taxpayers who have income from California sources including corporations, estates and trusts, exempt organizations operating an unrelated business, pass-through entities (i.e. partnerships, LLCs, S corporations) and their partners, members, shareholders, and nonresident individual income taxpayers." With Renee Rodda speaking at our October dinner meeting on California law, it may be useful to visit the FTB web site on this topic, at https://www.ftb.ca.gov/businesses/Sales_Factor.shtml.
